SOME THOUGHTS ABOUT DOORS

Doors are made to open and close.

Some doors close out all new ideas,
other doors frustrate ideals.

The doors in the house of despair are closed.

"I would not bar a single door
Where Love might enter" — Kate Douglas Wiggin

The door of youth gently closes into old age.

"Behold, I stand at the Door and I knock" — Revelation III, 20.

Doors, the commencement speakers say open to "life and success"
Doors, the commencement speakers don't say can close flat in your face.

BY ROBERT HAYWOOD AND OTHERS

"The night comes down, the lights burn blue;
And at my door the Pale Horse stands,
to bear me forth to unknown lands." — John Hay

Some doors always open wide to the world.

The doors of light are best for the darkness.

"At the door of life, by the gate of breath,
there are worse things waiting for man
than death."

— A. C. Swinburne.

Old doors flashing with sunlight have character and history.

Some doors lead to other doors which are kept locked at the most inconvenient times.

Stairways lead to doors, too many stairways, too many doors.
